

Thomas L. Bryan, CPA, MBA, CPFIM
Controller / Director of Accounting
Colorado Housing and Finance Authority

Thomas Bryan oversees the accounting, budgeting, and financial reporting functions of the Colorado Housing and Finance Authority (CHFA). Since 1973 CHFA has been one of the leading, premier housing finance agencies in the nation, funding affordable housing and economic development in the State of Colorado. It is CHFA's vision to ensure everyone in Colorado has the opportunity for housing stability and economic prosperity.

Prior to joining CHFA, Thomas served as the Controller for the City of Centennial, CO and the Town of Parker, CO, as well as Senior Accountant for FirstBank Holding Company. In all three positions he was responsible for overseeing the entities' finances and budget; ensuring entity funds were used in a fiscally responsible manner while meeting key performance indicators.

Thomas holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and a Master of Business Administration Degree. Thomas also graduated from the Government Finance Officer Association's Advanced Finance Institute program hosted by the University of Wisconsin-Madison, the National Council of State Housing Agencies' Advanced Executive Leadership Program hosted by the University of Notre Dame, as well as Leadership Denver Class of 2017 hosted by the Denver Metro Chamber Leadership Foundation.

Thomas holds an active CPA license in the State of Colorado and is currently a member of the Colorado Society of CPAs, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Government Finance Officers Association, and the National Council of State Housing Agencies.

In his spare time, Thomas also serves as:

1. A regular Board Member and Chair-elect for the Academy of Urban Learning; a Denver Public Schools Charter High School dedicated to serving youth who come from uncertain living conditions.
2. A Citizen Member of the Budget Committee of the City of Centennial.
3. An active participant on both the Rolling Hills Elementary School and Falcon Creek Middle School PTCO programs.
4. A volunteer Coach for local i9 Sports teams.
